

Clubs and Organizations

Clubs and organizations exist to meet the co-curricular needs of students, to enhance self-esteem, and to provide student involvement.

This section gives a general outline for organizing clubs and providing information on clubs.

Organizational Issues

Advisors: Each club or organization MUST have an advisor who is familiar with the established procedures for working with A.S.B.

Student Responsibilities: Club programs are established by and for students.

Students should:

- A. Conduct their own meeting with the advisor present.

[This area contains multiple horizontal lines for writing, which are mostly obscured by heavy black redaction marks.]

H. Clubs that do not adhere to established guidelines lose the rights and privileges of Academic: (subject related) ( SF, Academic Club, Mock Trial, FBLA, FHA, FFA, Music, Drama, Choir, Science, Math, Languages.

Service: Interact, FNL/SADD